Interconexión Eléctrica S.A. E.S.P. (ISA) informs that Carlos Andrés Pérez Osorio, who served as Vice President of Growth and Business Development, has decided to submit his resignation from the organization for personal and family reasons.

While the selection and hiring process for this role is carried out, Jaime Enrique Falquez Ortiga, current Vice President of Corporate Finance, will assume the position on an interim basis.

ISA thanks Carlos Andrés for his time at the company, his leadership, and technical expertise, and extends its best wishes for success in his new endeavors. Likewise, ISA wishes Jaime every success in this new challenge.
