

Medellín, october 19, 2026

RELEVANT INFORMATION

Interconexión Eléctrica S.A. E.S.P. (ISA) informs that Natalia Velásquez Ayala, who served as Corporate Risk Director, will end her employment relationship with the Company today, October 19, 2026.

As the selection process for this position moves forward, Hugo Nicolás Genoni, currently Vice President of Risk and Compliance, will assume the responsibilities of the role on an interim basis.

Nicolás has 20 years of experience in internal auditing, compliance, and risk management. Of this professional career, five years have been with ISA and its companies, serving as Vice President and as Director of Audit, Compliance & SOX at ISA Energia Brasil. Previously, he developed his career at multinational companies such as General Motors, Accenture, and Ernst & Young. He holds a degree in Business Administration from the National University of La Plata (Argentina) and an MBA in Business Management from Fundação Getulio Vargas (FGV), Brazil.

Once the selection process is completed and the person who will lead the Risk Directorate is appointed, the corresponding market communication will be issued. We thank Natalia for her contributions and wish her every success in her future professional endeavors.